Governor Peabody, of Colorado, ought to flag down the constitution if it ever passes through his State on its way to the Philippines.

One week from to-morrow the North Carolina Democratic convention will meet at Greensboro. The Wilmington delegation will go up Wednesday.

"President Roosevelt," says the Washington Post, "is determined to have a sound platform." It will most likely give out sounds that sound like sounds sound.

A married man in Georgia was refused a divorce because he objected to his wife's certain lectures. This is a case where a man is compelled to attend free lectures and cant go out between acts.

Lots of Democrats appear not to believe Cleveland. He has again declared that he "would not accept the nomination," but lots of his admirers believe that he does not mean that he will not accept.

This is leap year. Judge Parker has been waiting for Miss Democracy to propose to him and he is keeping quiet so he can hear her voice. The lady has inched up towards him, but others are trying to attract her attention in the other direction.

The New York Tribune (Rep.) is anxious about the Republican dissension in Wisconsin and has fears of losing the State. It advises the Republican national convention to be gingerly about deciding between the contesting delegations from the two Republican State conventions.

Roosevelt evidently wants a running mate that will keep him from falling down. The Brooklyn Citizen says: "If Roosevelt and the Republican leaders felt as sure of his election as of his nomination, as they all profess to do, would he or they be so anxious to find a man for the second place who would add strength to the ticket?"

Our American heiresses who pay big prices for measly titled foreigners have themselves to blame for going up against a shell game like that. They get taken in and get nothing for their money. It is hard to sympathize with them under the circumstances, although the daughter of Vice President Levi P. Morton is being pitied in her suit for divorce from a little French Count who has treated her cruelly since their marriage.

NATIONAL BANK CHANGES.

Mr. J. W. Yates Elected Cashier of Atlantic National; Mr. M. F. Allen, Assistant; Mr. H. M. Croswell, Teller.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic National Bank held yesterday noon at the office of President John S. Armstrong, all the resident stockholders having been in attendance, Mr. Joseph W. Yates was elected cashier of the bank, vice Mr. Andrew Moreland, resigned some time ago; Mr. Mitchell F. Allen was elected assistant cashier to succeed Mr. Yates, promoted, and Mr. Harry M. Croswell was elected teller to succeed the late W. P. Price, deceased.

The selections are regarded in the business community as being the very best that could be made. Mr. Yates has had a number of years of banking experience, having been cashier of the National Bank of Wilmington prior to its consolidation with the Atlantic about three years ago and assistant cashier of the consolidated institution since that time until the resignation of Mr. Moreland when he became acting cashier. Mr. Yates is clever, courteous and obliging and will be most acceptable to the bank's large clientele. Mr. Allen, the new assistant cashier, has been cashier of the Atlantic Trust and Banking Company since its organization and has also had much National bank experience. He will prove a valuable assistant to Cashier Yates. Mr. Allen's successor as cashier of the Atlantic Trust and Banking Co. has not yet been named. The selection of Mr. Croswell as teller of the Atlantic Bank is in line with the policy of the institution to secure for every department the very best man available. Mr. Croswell was for several years cashier of the Bank of Clio, S. C., and is promoted from a bookkeeper's desk in the Atlantic. He is polite, courteous, accurate and in every way a worthy successor of the late Mr. Price, who was so well liked and trusted by the public at large.

The only other business of public interest transacted by the Directors of the Atlantic yesterday was the election of Mr. D. T. McKeithan, of Lumber, S. C., a member of the Board of Directors to succeed Mr. Moreland. Mr. McKeithan was associated with the late P. L. Bridgers in the Bridgers-McKeithan Lumber Company and is a gentleman eminently qualified by responsibility and experience to represent the stockholders of the bank as a director.

French, Wm. H. Sprunt, J. H. Rehder, D. C. Love, Sam Bear, Jr. and Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy. The ambulance responded to 40 calls.

First Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Building and Loan League To-day.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH.

Advance Guard Already Arriving and Prospects Good for Profitable Gathering—Excursion on Steamer "Compton" To-morrow.

Col. A. L. Smith, of Charlotte, arrived yesterday and is a guest at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach. Col. Smith comes in advance of the representatives from all parts of the State to make arrangements for the first annual meeting of the North Carolina Building and Loan League, which will convene at the Seashore Hotel to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. The programme of the meeting was published in full in these columns yesterday morning. President Wittkowsky, of Charlotte, and other officers of the League will arrive to-day. Fully 60 per cent. of the building and loan interests of the State, which represent altogether assets of $2,232,000, according to the reports to the Corporation Commission last December 31st, will be represented.

Besides the delegates from the seven associations in Wilmington, there will be men from Charlotte, Concord, Winston-Salem, Wadesboro, Rocky Mount and Asheville. The Charlotte representatives and the associations they represent, are the following named: Messrs. S. Wittkowsky, R. E. Cochrane and A. L. Smith, of the Mechanics' Perpetual; E. L. Keesler, Chase Brenizer and J. G. Shannonhouse, of the Mutual; and Willis Brown, Heriot Clarkson and F. W. Ahrens, of the Charlotte Association.

The opening session to night will be taken up with preliminary business including an address of welcome by Mr. Iredell Meares; response by Mr. Grant, of Asheville, and the annual reports of President Wittkowsky and Secretary and Treasurer Keesler. Thursday the visitors will recede from business and will go for an excursion on the steamer "Compton" to Southport and to sea, leaving Wilmington at 9:30 A. M. and returning at 6 o'clock in the evening. Some of the features of the sessions on the programme for Thursday will probably be transferred to Friday. It is to be greatly regretted that Mr. D. A. Tompkins cannot be present and deliver an address Thursday morning as was at first expected.

The public generally and especially all persons interested in the building and loan associations are cordially invited to attend the sessions. The proceedings will be of an interesting and instructive nature.

Col. Smith, who is here to make arrangements for the meeting, has visited Wilmington before and is renewing acquaintances of years ago. For 21 years he was a member of the State Guard and served for seven years as Inspector General of the Guard. His reminiscences of encampment life on Wrightsville are interesting. He is also a veteran of the Civil War and an all 'round pleasant and agreeable conversationalist.

LOCAL PORT PARAGRAPHS.

Vessel With Cargo of Pineapples in Distress—Markets and Shipping.

There was "nothing doing" in spirits turpentine on the local market yesterday. Cotton receipts were 15 bales.

River steamboats "City of Fayetteville" and "Tar Heel" were down on their regular trips yesterday.

The schooner "Jesse Barlow," from Georgetown, S. C., bound north, anchored off the Cape Fear bar yesterday for harbor.

The schooner "Robert McClintock," Capt. Louis, having completed discharging cargo of 1,200 barrels of cement at the Carolina Central warehouses, cleared yesterday, light, for Georgetown, S. C. She made remarkably fast time discharging.

The fruit schooner "Eugenie," 89 tons, Capt. Small, arrived yesterday from the Bahama islands bound to Baltimore with cargo of pineapples. The vessel encountered rough weather on the voyage and is leaking. She reported to her agents, Messrs. J. T. Riley & Co., who immediately advised with the owners of the cargo, the Booth Packing Co., of Baltimore. A representative of the owners will be here to-day to decide whether the cargo will be discharged here or the vessel will be towed with it to Baltimore.

Boys' Brigade Encampment.

The Boys' Brigade will go on its annual encampment to Southport on July 2nd and remain in camp until the 11th. The Brigade is in excellent shape, and the encampment promises to be one of the most successful held in recent years. The excursion to Carolina Beach on Friday will be for the benefit of the encampment fund, and indications are that it will be very largely patronized.

The Merry Excursions.

Carmichael's excursion from Pee Dee, S. C., failed to materialize yesterday. To-day two excursions will reach the city—one from Rocky Mount by Harrell Bros. and another run by the military company from Mullins, S. C. Both will arrive this morning and go straight through to the beach.

Take the children to the Casino—25 cents round trip on trolley line for children under twelve years.—No charge for children under 5 years.

THE DISPENSARY CAMPAIGN.

First Public Meeting in Furtherance of Movement Held Last Night—Rev. T. J. Smoot the Speaker.

The first aggressive step of a pretentious nature in the movement for the establishment of a dispensary in Wilmington was the public speaking in the Court House last night under the auspices of the local Anti-Saloon Campaign Committee. The meeting was well attended by representative people, whom it is fair to presume have convictions upon both sides of the issue. The room was comfortably filled while not a few stood in the doors and sat in the windows. A number of ladies graced the assemblage with their presence, making an environment not altogether that of the ordinary political meeting.

Owing to some disarrangement of the electric lighting apparatus in the court room, it was nearly 9 o'clock when an electrician could be secured and the lights were turned on. Mr. R. G. Grady, chairman of the Campaign Committee, called the meeting to order and stated with regret that at the last moment Mr. W. C. Douglas, of Raleigh, who had been expected to address the meeting, found it impossible to come. However, he took great pleasure in introducing the Rev. T. J. Smoot, the eloquent and talented young pastor of Hay Street Methodist church, of Fayetteville. Rev. Mr. Smoot spoke for about three-quarters of an hour, and received the undivided attention of his hearers. He prefaced his remarks with a modest apology for having no prepared speech, owing to the fact that the invitation came to him only a short time before the meeting. He declared that he was first a prohibitionist; second a dispensary man, as the next best thing, and first, last and all the time an enemy of the open saloon. His address was largely along the lines of the morality involved, and was, withal, very conservative. He closed by reading testimonials of the advantages of the dispensary at Fayetteville from the sheriff of the county in 1898, Col. W. S. Cook, Mr. C. B. McMillan, Policeman Benton, and Capts. Jno. M. Walker and McLaughlin, the two last named having been railroad conductors running on the A. & Y. train in and out of Fayetteville, both before and after the establishment of a dispensary in Fayetteville. The meeting was closed without ceremony, and the dispensary people expressed themselves as highly gratified at the success of it.

THE SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

Three Cases Before the Mayor Yesterday. Defendants Take an Appeal.

Three cases growing out of the movement of the city authorities to stamp out the illegal sale of liquor on Sunday were called in the Mayor's court yesterday. J. E. Ennett, a licensed dealer at Front and Dock streets, through his counsel, Marsden Bellamy, Esq., waived examination and gave $200 bond for his appearance at the June 27th term of the Superior Court. "Son" Jones and Ed. Connor, two negroes who are said to work in a restaurant adjoining Mr. Ennett's saloon, were arraigned upon the same charge. Jones was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., was found guilty and fined $50, but took an appeal to the Superior Court and gave bond in the sum of $150. Connor had no counsel and was fined $50 and costs. In default of the fine and cost, Connor went back to the city prison and will go to the roads for 30 days unless other arrangements are made.

Other arrests are expected to follow the ones made Monday and yesterday.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION CALLED.

Eleventh District Democrats Will Nominate State Senator Here on August 13th.

Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., and Geo. H. Bellamy, Esq., chairmen of the Democratic county executive committees of New Hanover and Brunswick, respectively, met here yesterday and agreed to call the Senatorial Convention of the Eleventh District, comprising the counties named, to be held in Wilmington on Saturday, August 13th. Delegates from neither of the counties have been appointed yet, that authority having been conferred upon the chairmen of the respective county conventions, recently held. The delegates, however, will be named in a short time. They will be solidly for Brooke G. Empie, Esq., who will receive the nomination without a dissenting voice, he having been the unanimous choice in the primaries held here and this being New Hanover's year to name the candidate.

Hall will speak on "The Elizabeth McRae Scholarship." A Question Box will then be opened, after which a business session will be held and a praise service conducted by Mrs. J. B. Moore. At 9 o'clock Dr. Hamill will address the Institute on "The Problem of the Teacher." An offering for expenses will be received at the night service.

STEDMAN LEADS IN EDGECOMBE.

Will Receive One-half or More of County's Vote in State Convention.

[Special Star Telegram.]

TARBORO, N. C., June 14.—The Edgecombe county convention was held to-day. About one-third of the delegates were instructed for Glenn. Friends of no other candidate called for a vote. Stedman supporters claim one-half of the strength of the county, and Davidson will probably receive a majority of the remaining one-third. Edgecombe has 25 votes in the State convention.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 14.—An unofficial report from the Nash county convention says Glenn received 12 and Stedman seven votes. The county has 20 votes in the State convention. The Stedman managers claimed only seven votes in Nash, but think the official returns will give him eight and perhaps more.

Bank Debtors Sued.

Complaints in eight suits brought by the Murchison National Bank of this city for the recovery of claims aggregating something over $4,000 against sundry debtors of the defunct Merchants' & Farmers' Bank, of Dunn, N. C., were filed by plaintiff's attorney, ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court here yesterday. Papers for the security of the loans appear to have been given originally to the Merchants & Farmers' Bank and then transferred to the plaintiff which now sues for recovery with interest.

POLICE EXCURSION TO-DAY.

Wilmington's "Finest" Will Enjoy a Day by the Sea--Programme of Field Athletics and Pistol Practice.

It's a great excursion the police will have to Carolina Beach to-day. For once people may romp and frolic on the sands of Old Ocean to their heart's desire "under police protection." The occasion is the annual excursion of Wilmington's "finest" and Capt. Jno. W. Harper is the host. Each officer and patrolman is given carte blanche on the steamer "Wilmington" to-day and they and their friends will journey in large numbers to Carolina Beach to enjoy a day by the sea and all that an annual outing of that kind means to the tireless workers, both night and day. Many of them will take their wives and children and with their friends the crowd is expected to be the largest of the season. There will be four trips of the steamer, with a late boat at night. Music, dancing and refreshments will be prime features, but the greatest interest of the day will centre about the pistol practice and field athletics, prizes for which have been liberally donated by Wilmington merchants. The events will be as follows:

Target shooting with 38 Smith & Wesson's over 30 yard range: First prize, fine hat, offered by J. M. Solky & Co.; second prize, box of cigars, offered by Mr. H. L. Vollers; third prize, North Carolina ham, offered by Mr. A. H. Holmes.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 15.

JUDGE W. S. O'B ROBINSON.

Says the Durham Herald:

As Judge Robinson has not landed flat-footed in the Democraric party he must be a bigger man than some people have given him credit for.

Judge Robinson is not liable to land flat-footed in the Democratic party. He is bound to have his kick. He happens to be a Republican from principle and has a clean record. He is one of the squarest and most honorable opponents, and would not take a mean advantage if he could do so. In the nineties Judge Robinson was the Republican nominee for Congress in the old Third District and he had to fight a hard customer in the lamented Major Charles W. McClammy, a Democratic war horse that didn't mind a rough and tumble on the hustings. The two conducted their campaign like gentlemen. They had a joint canvass, discussed issues, abused each other's parties and turned the laugh on each other, but villification wasn't in it at any time. We witnessed them warm up things at one of their discussions, and when it was over they invited the writer to their room. That means that they had one room and one bed, and we had reason to suspect that they didn't have but one valise between them, for what was in it appeared to be common property—that is what they carried along to doctor the throats that they split at each other. Major McClammy knocked down the persimmon in that election, but Judge Robinson gained nothing but respect everywhere he spoke.

When it comes to politics Judge Robinson is a Republican. When it comes to principle he will cuss out anybody that hasn't got any. That is the reason why he is disgusted with the rapscallions who are running his party in the State—a graceless set that are Republicans for revenue only, or worse.

Judge Robinson has the reputation of being eccentric, but his eccentricity is merely the outcropping of genius. He is as sharp as a briar and altogether too decent to run with the gang with which his priciples make it necessary for him to affiliate. The Democratic party in North Carolina has had some good recruits from the Republican party in the past, and if Judge Robinson decides to come over, he would be welcome, for he would be a recruit well worthy of confidence as having had a sincere change of heart.

When the Republican State convention was held at Greensboro recently Judge Robinson was hissed because he was opposed to a platitudinous, vaporous and senseless denunciation of the clean and able administraion of Governor Aycock. While differing from Governor Aycock in politics he sees no advantage in lying about a Democratic administration. The fact is Bill Robinson is honest and altogether too decent to be in the mix-up with the pariahs, buccaneers, and feed-troughers in the aggregation to which he belongs.

If the Republican party in North Carolina could get into the hands of men like Judge Robinson it would gain respect and might make headway, but as long as the tainted, malodorous, pot-licker poops now in control of his party continue to figure in the arena, the Republican party will have about as much chance in North Carolina as a ten pound cake of ice would have in the crater of Mont Pelee.

COL. LAMB AFTER SECRETARY CORTELYOU.

This we get from the Philadelphia Record:

Colonel Lamb, of Norfolk, charges Secretary Cortelyou with a serious abuse of his official discretion in permitting the Norfolk & Western Railroad to enjoy the exclusive use of the government fog signal house, lands and pier at Lambert's Point, Va. It is charged that only Norfolk and Western tugs can land at the pier, and the sales agent for Pocahontas coal has a telephone in the government building which no other parties can use. This is an interesting story, and it ought to be looked into; but we gather from the Colonel's statement that the favoritism began as long ago as when Secretary Folger was at the head of the Treasury, and when Colonel Lamb was interested in the Norfolk and Western, and before it was controlled by the Pennsylvania Railroad, since which time he has been antagonizing it.

The Col. Lamb here referred to is Col. William Lamb, of Fort Fisher fame. He is a Republican himself, and his exposure of Cortelyou only shows how Republican officials keep up their custom of handling out special privileges.

"Higher education hurts no woman," says a Northern exchange. Higher clothes get next to her though.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—When the constitution followed the flag all over the rest of the country it may have skipped parts of Colorado.—Chicago News.

—Reports from Russia tell us that there is deep depression in that country. The Japs "have Russia in a hole," in other words.—Norfolk Landmark.

—"Roosevelt is a platform in himself," says an enthusiastic Republican orator. That is a platform which many people will be more willing to sit on than to stand on.—Baltimore Sun.

—If there were more politicians like Judge Parker, there would be fewer of them laying up charges against their souls by swearing they were misquoted by the reporters.—Savannah News.

—A church in Pennsylvania is almost disrupted because the women of the congregation proposed serving deviled eggs and angel cake at a sociable. There's something, after all, in a name.—Chicago Evening Post.

—According to a Chicago telegram Mr. Hearst will get the Illinois delegates to the St. Louis convention. This is not because Illinois Democrats love Hearst or the principles he advocates, but is the result of a factional fight in Chicago between Mayor Harrison and ex-Mayor John P. Hopkins. The latter needed aid in the fight and he took in Hearst, promising him the national delegation as his share of the spoils of victory. The Harrison faction was defeated, and Hopkins has informed his friends throughout the State that the deal with Hearst must go through. They agreed, though admitting antagonism to Hearst, and the vote of Illinois is thus settled.—Pittsburg Gazette.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Say, ma, don't pop tell you lots of conundrums?" "Why do you ask that, Bobby?" "Well, I heard him tell Mr. Smith last night that he had you guessing."—Sioux Falls Press.

—"Are you going to the seashore this summer?" "No," answered the tired looking man. "There's no use of going myself. I can send the money every week by registered letter."—Washington Star.

—Miss Trueso—Am I to understand, papa, that everything is settled in regard to my wedding? Mr. Truelove—Yes, my dear; everything—but the bills.—Chicago Journal.

—"Consider the porous plaster, my son," remarked the philosopher, "and don't get discouraged. Everybody turns his back on it, yet it hangs on and eventually achieves success by close application."—Chicago Daily News.

—The Son: "What are we to understand by the 'know nothing party,' pop?" Pop: "The 'know nothing party,' my son, is the individual who stands at the railroad station door and of whom questions are asked in vain."—Yonkers Statesman.

—"Why aren't there more marriages?" "Because the modern woman likes to be independent for a little while, and by the time she has ceased to like to be independent it is too late for her to get a husband."—Chicago Post.

—The delegation from Kohosh county to the State Convention was holding a consultation. "We have decided," said the Chairman to the member that had just come, "to cast the vote of our county as a unit." "Is that the reason," demanded the delegate, "why there's only one bed at the hotel for the whole bunch of us?"—Chicago Tribune.

—Here is a school boy's composition: "Winter is the coldest season of the year, because it comes mostly in the winter. In some countries winter comes in the summer, then it isn't so worse. I wish winter came in summer in Chicago, then we could go skating barefooted and make snowballs without getting our fingers froze. When it snows in summer they call it rain."—Chicago News.

The distracting headaches from which so many women suffer make life a daily purgatory. If men suffered with headache as women do, business would be almost at a standstill. Does not the fact that women only suffer from these severe headaches suggest that there must be a womanly cause for them?

When the womanly organism is diseased, headache, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness are consequences which are sure to follow.

$500 Reward for Women Who Cannot be Cured.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Proprietors. Buffalo, N. Y.

"I took two bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and two of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am feeling well," writes Mrs. Dan McKenzie, of Lorway Mines, Cape Breton Co., Nova Scotia. "I had uterine trouble, pain in the side and headache. After taking your medicines I got well. You may publish this or use it in any way you think best, as I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

CHILDREN.

IF YOU HAVE ANY THIS WILL INTEREST YOU.

"So many little boys and girls come into our store who are weak, thin legged and hollow-cheeked," said Mr. Bellamy, our well known druggist, "it seems a shame to allow them to remain so, for they will grow up into weak, sickly and nervous men and women without the vitality to work or enjoy life."

"If," continued Mr. Bellamy, "the fathers and mothers of such children would believe what we say of Vinol, we would see a great difference in the appearance of the younger generation of this city. You know Vinol is not a patent medicine, and is just the iconic growing children need. It will make for them good, healthy flesh, sound bone, hard muscle and rich, red blood.

"True, Vinol is a cod liver oil preparation, but it does not contain a drop of oil, or any bad tasting feature. It is so delicious that all children love it, yet it actually does contain all the medicinal curative elements found in fresh cods' livers, and is the most wholesome and best medicine for children we ever sold.

"We have many letters from grateful mothers whose children owe their health, and even life, to Vinol. The following letter from Mrs. C. Allen, of New Bedford, Mass., tells what Vinol did for her children. She writes:

"With two puny, ailing children, I was very much worried, and did not know what to do to create strength for them and to have them gain flesh. I tried almost everything, and as a last resort Vinol, and the benefit from that was great in a very short time. They are rapidly gaining flesh and strength, and I am satisfied Vinol will do as much for other children."

It is because we know what Vinol will do that we guarantee if it fails to make your children well, rugged and rosy, to refund your money. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When well-known Wilmington people tell it so plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Wilmington the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

B. R. King the well-known policeman residing at 706 Wooster street says: "I had terrible pain in my back which worked around to my side and in my stomach so bad at times that it laid me up. I used internal medicines and they did not help me. I put on plasters and rubbed with liniment and none of them helped me at all. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I got a box of them at Bellamy's drug store. The next day after commencing to use them I noticed relief. Since using two boxes of them I have not had an ache or pain in my back. It is with pleasure that I add my name to those endorsing the claims made for this remedy."

NAVAL STORES MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of fourteen points on the old crop and of one to four points on the new crop positions. The opening losses were in keeping with the cables, which were particularly easy on spot cotton and the old crop positions, and while crop and weather news received during the day was generally favorable, the late positions ruled relatively firm in the local market during the entire session, with the July premium over August cut down at the close of business to forty-one points against fifty-five points at the close of the previous night. The market ruled very irregular and July showed peculiar sensitiveness to small orders either way. Soon after the call there was a bear raid. Stop orders were caught and July was forced down to 11.53, August to 11.15 and October to 9.74, declines of thirty-six, nineteen and nine points respectively. But the demand at the decline was fair, coming from shorts, and what looked to be from spinners, and the market before midday had rallied to about a point or so over the opening figures. It received the weekly report of the weather bureau at about this level. The report proved quite as favorable as had been expected, and its immediate effect was a decline of five to eight points on the new crop positions. But the old months showed resistance and a little later the whole list rallied, with July selling up to 11.90, a net advance of one point, while August was advanced to 11.47, thirteen points higher, and the new crop showed net gains of ten to twelve points. Later, the list eased off slightly under room selling and short sales encouraged by the prospects for continued favorable weather, the close being steady, eight points lower on July and six points higher on August, leading the advance. Sales were reported at 400,000 bales.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The nineteenth annual session of the North Carolina University Summer school began at Chapel Hill on Monday.

— The U. S. Government is spending $2,500 in improvements on the mint at Charlotte. The receipts of gold mined in North Carolina are steadily increasing.

— Fremont Enterprise: An election to determine by a vote of the people whether a dispensary shall be established in Fremont on January 1, 1905, is ordered by the town commissioners to be held on Monday, August 1st. But Fremont is "dry" for six months in this year, regardless.

— Senator Simmons arrived in Raleigh on Monday from Beaufort, where he and his family are spending the summer, having leased the home of the late John R. Morris. The senator looks much better and says he is enjoying life there, taking exercise, mainly horseback riding, walking a good deal and rowing.

— William Walker, the negro who was shot in the right lung by another negro, Tom Coyle alias Tom Vaughn, on Sunday morning at Charlotte, died Monday night. Tom Coyle, who fired the fatal shot and was himself wounded in both hands during the melee, is still in the county jail. He asserts that he shot in self-defence.

—A charter was granted at Raleigh on Monday to the Call Milling Co., of North Wilksboro, to manufacture flour, meal, etc., the principal stockholpers being Clarence Call, the capital stock $100,000. Another charter was granted to the Bank of Creedmoor, in Granville county, commercial and savings, capital stock $500,000, J. B. Mason and others stockholders.

— The Guilford Court convened at Greensboro on Monday, Judge C. M. Cooke presiding. This court is for the trial of civil cases only, and there is a heavy docket. There are 99 cases on it against the Southern Railway alone. It is not expected that anything scarcely will be done in the court next week, owing to the North Carolina Bar Association meets in Charlotte, and the convention meets in Greensboro Thursday.

— Funds have been raised by public-spirited persons for the purchase of the old house, in Raleigh, in which President Andrew Johnson was born. It is the plan to remove this to Pullen park, and place it on a site in plain view of passengers on the Southern and Seaboard Air Line railways, and to fit it up as a museum, in a room of which the Colonial Dames and Daughters of the Revolution can hold meetings. The old house is very well preserved, is small and can probably be easily moved.

— Charlotte Observer: A special from Washington to the New York Evening Mail says that "Democratic leaders among the conservatives and in the Bryan camp have combined to force an expression as to his policy from Judge Parker, and unless he takes either the bosses or the public into his confidence, it is declared that he can never be nominated for the presidency." The correspondent continues: "Already enough votes have been secured, so it is alleged, to prevent Judge Parker's nomination if he continues his attitude of silence."

— State Superintendent Joyner having returned to Raleigh from the Teachers Assembly at Morehead City says about 250 representative teaheers were present; that he never attended a session at which the speeches and discussion were of a higher order throughout. The spirit was fine and the educational enthusiasm great. Speaking about the local tax movement in aid of public schools Mr. Joyner said that just now not very many elections on this question are being held. He has about 135 applications on file to speak or send speakers to educational meetings during the summer.

— Charlotte Observer, June 14: A very lamentable accident, resulting in the instant death of Aleck Sikes, a 16-year-old boy, occurred at the Highland Park Mill settlement yesterday afternoon shortly before 4 o'clock. The lad's little brother, a child only five years old, all unconscious of the terrible consequences which would follow his act, pulled the trigger of a single barrelled shot gun, causing the entire charge of shot, virtually, to enter and rend in pieces the heart of his brother. When the child saw what he had done, he ran into the house to his mother, crying out, "Aleck didn't get out of the way." Lack of ordinary prudence permitted the distressing occurrence. Aleck and the child, whose name is Henry, were a party of their playmates in the yard of the home of Mr. J. M. Sikes, the father of the boys. They had the gun to kill a weazel, which was believed to be in the vicinity. The boys finally got to looking for the weazel underneath the Sikes' house. A small child of Mr. W. H. Griffith, who was reclining just out of the line of fire, had its neck grazed by one of the tiny shots.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentcrville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free; regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

To the Mountains, via S. A. L. Ry.

C., $5.05; Hickory, N. C., $5.95; Cliff, N. C., $6.10; Lenoir, N. C., $6.65; Blowing Rock, $8.55; Chimney Rock, N. C., $8.55; Granite Falls, N. C., $6.25. CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

— Raleigh correspondence of the Charlotte Observer, June 14: In an interview with Secretary E. A. Taylor, of the Tobacco Growers' Hail Insurance Company, inquiries were made as to the effect of the hail storms in the trucking section. Mr. Taylor said that his company had done business this season in 26 counties, in all of which more or less damage was done by hail; about the same as last year. The adjusters are yet at work in that section. This year the company took up strawberries for the first time and insured this crop in about 15 counties; it has also insured watermelons, canteloupes, etc. He says that truckers throughout the State have sustained the usual amount of damage by hail. Friday night there was a severe hail storm in parts of Scotland and Robeson counties, totally destroying melons in a section two miles wide and ten miles long, the hail being half a foot deep. The insurance on the strawberry crop was up to June 15th, while that on truck and melons is up to July 1st, as it is considered that the latter day melons are well enough matured to be out of danger.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience Mrs. S. H. Newson, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

WEDNESDAY MORNING. JUNE 15.

CROPS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Weather Very Favorable the Past Week. Cotton Everywhere in Excellent Condition—Corn Promises Well.

Weekly crop bulletin, for week ending, Monday, June 13, 1904.

The past week on the whole was very favorable for the growth of all crops and for general farm work. The first part of the week was dry and warm with maximum temperatures ranging in the nineties; there were also light thunder-showers in a few localities, which were exceedingly beneficial. On Friday, the 10th, there was a general rain, being in excess of two inches in some places. It was accompanied by hail in a few places, doing, however, very little serious damage. With the beginning of this rain the weather turned cool, and temperatures remained quite low during the remainder of the week, retarding slightly the growth of crops, and leaving the soil in a condition too wet for further cultivation.

Cotton is everywhere in excellent condition; it is being worked the second time, and chopping is nearly over. Corn is plowed the second time; it is doing fairly well and promises to be a good crop. Wheat is ripening rapidly. Harvesting will probably begin next week in the western part of the State, while in the eastern counties it is already in progress. The yield is everywhere good, and much better than was expected; the straw is short, has a good color, and is well headed. Oats are doing well, but the crop is not very promising. Irish potatoes are being dug and marketed in the eastern part of the State; the yield is below the average. Prospects for fruit are fair. Apples are dropping in some places. Dewberries are being picked and some are on the market.

MRS. PATTERSON ARRAIGNED.

Pleaded Not Guilty to the Indictment for Murder—Bowed and Smiled as She Left the Court Room.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Mrs. Nan Patterson, the former actress, against whom an indictment for murder in the first degree in connection with the death of book-maker Cæsar Young, was returned by the grand jury yesterday, to-day entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Newbridge in the Court of General Sessions. The plea was made with leave to withdraw by next Friday and in the meantime her counsel will serve notice on the district attorney that he will have to inspect the minutes of the grand jury.

The proceedings in court were very brief, occupying hardly more than two minutes and not one word was spoken by the prisoner.

Attired in deep mourning with a heavy black veil, which she was not compelled to raise, Mrs. Patterson entered the court room with her father, Miss Martha McLaughlin, a friend, and her counsel, just before the clerk called the case. With a jaunty air she walked up the aisle to the bar and when asked to plead to the indictment she turned to Mr. Levy, her attorney, who said: "The defendant pleads not guilty, with leave to withdraw by Friday."

"That is a practice I don't approve of," the court replied, "but I will give you until Friday in which to plead."

This ended the formal arraignment, and the prisoner was at once taken back to the Tombs. As she was led from the court room she bowed and smiled toward her father and friends sitting at the rear of the court room.

COTTON AND TOBACCO.

Condition of Crops as Reported in the Weather Bureau's Weekly Summary.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 14. — The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions says:

A further improvement in cotton is generally indicated throughout the belt. In portions of Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma, however, fields are becoming foul, while the crop is in need of rain in portions of Alabama. In the central and eastern districts the plant continues small, but is now growing rapidly. Boll weevils are still numerous in south western and central cotton counties in Texas, and in some sections are doing considerable damage.

Transplanting tobacco in the more northerly sections is well advanced and that recently planted is making a fine start. The general condition of this crop is very satisfactory.

PERDICARIS AND VARLEY.

A Hitch in Negotiations for the Release of the Brigands' Captives.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—United States Consul General Gummere, at Tangier, Morocco, to day cabled to the State Department, indicating that the negotiations for the release of Perdicaris and Varley have not yet been completed. Just where the hitch is cannot be learned. It is suspected that it relates to the vexed question of a guarantee by the United States and Great Britain of immunity for Raisuli and the faithful observance of the Sultan's promises. As a result of to-day's advices, officials here have changed their opinion as to the date of the release of the captives and say that several days must yet elapse.

News was received in Montgomery, Ala., of the killing of Mrs. Halliday, a white woman, by Addie Smith, a negro girl. The slayer was caught at Notasulga, a small town near Montgomery. A large crowd soon gathered and fearing violence the sheriff of Lee county took the negress to Tuskegee for safe-keeping.

THE CONFEDERATE VETERANS' REUNION

Thirty Thousand People in Attendance at Great Gathering in Nashville, Tenn.

ALL SECTIONS REPRESENTED.

Sons of Veterans Sat With Their Fathers. The Welcoming Address—General Stephen D Lee—Oration by Dr. McKim, of Washington.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, TENN., June 14.—Under every condition tending to a successful reunion, Nashville to-day officially welcomed the United Confederate Veterans and their friends, constituting a host conservatively estimated at thirty thousand people.

The exercises of the day took place in the Tabernacle and every bit of space was taken long before the veterans were called to order by General George W. Gordon, of Memphis, commander of the Tennessee division.

It was the first convention in the history of the organization that the Sons of Veterans sat with their fathers, and the cheers from the throats of the younger generation at almost every expression by those who took part in the strife forty years ago made it plain that the spirit of '61 would be perpetuated in generations to come.

California was represented on the floor, from far off Montana a delegation was sent, and Ohio was on hand with four delegates.

It was the fourteenth annual meeting, and the first at which the distinguished officer John B. Gordon did not preside. A few steps to the rear of General Stephen D. Lee who occupied the chair, sat General Gordon's widow and two daughters, Mrs. Burton Smith, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Orton Bishop Brown, of Maine.

To the right and to the left of them were seated many of the chief figures of the Confederacy and a charming array of beautifully gowned division and department sponsors. There was a noticeable curtailment of the sponsor feature of the re-union and it was announced from the stage early that only the sponsors accredited to departments and divisions would be given seats on the stage.

On the stage were were General Stephen D. Lee, the acting commander-in-chief; General William D. Jones, of Richmond; General C. H. Tebault, of New Orleans, chief surgeon, C. S. A., and Miss Corinne, sponsor in chief; General W. E. Mickle, of New Orleans, adjutant general; General W. S. Cabell, commanding the trans-Mississippi division; General A. J. West, Atlanta, commanding the North Georgia brigade; General C. Irvine Walker, commanding the department of Virginia and General Clement A. Evans, Atlanta, who succeeded General Stephen D. Lee as commander of the department of Tennessee.

The convention hall was well filled by 11 o'clock. The long wait of an hour and a half before the gathering was called to order was enlivened by the appearance of the Kentucky delegation with their band, and later by the arrival of the only surviving drum corps of the Confederate hosts, a band of three or four men from North Carolina. As they marched down the long aisle to the tune of "Dixie," escorting a North Carolina camp, the enthusiasm of the old veterans was unbounded. A few moments later the Seventh United States cavalry band stationed at Chattanooga came into the hall playing a spirited march. They marched down to the stage and were escorted up to the gallery where they took a position in the extreme end over the platform, their uniforms forming the only variation to the predominating gray of those assembled.

After Gen. Gordon had called the veterans to order, Chaplain Jones delivered the invocation. Governor J. B. Frazier welcomed the delegates to Tennessee in a splendid address. Twice he started to his seat only to be recalled and urged in behalf of the veterans. Among other things Governor Frazier said:

"When that grand man, that patriot, that noble Christian soldier, General Robert E. Lee, surrendered at Appomattox, he spoke with a heart too full for deceit, in that no Southern mother swore her son to bitterness. She swore him to love and honor. All accepted the inevitable finality. When you saw furled for the last time the stars and bars you had followed for four years, when you had made your last final march back to your homes, had a final farewell from comrades and found the sainted mother sleeping in the family cemetery, the beautiful home in ruin and ashes; when you pressed upon your wife's lip a loving kiss, you sealed a solemn pledge that from that day on you would know but one country and but one flag.

"You came back to take up your old work, to build a new civilization, to redeem a land that had almost maliciously been given to the negro. In less than thirty-five years, unaided by anything except a fertile land and energy, you have attained commercial freedom for the South. The South has already snatched from New England the hitherto unchallenged record of cotton manufacturing. The South is destined to become the garden spot in this fair land. [Applause].

"We welcome you to the warm hospitality and sunshine of the South and if that is not warm enough, welcome you to some of our good homes." [Applause and cheers].

After Colonel A. S. Williams, mayor of Nashville, had extended the city's welcome, Gen. Gordon brought forward General Stephen D. Lee as the permanent presiding officer and commander-in-chief.

General Lee's appearance was the signal for a remarkable outburst of enthusiasm. Cheer after cheer greeted him. Hats, canes, handkerchiefs and coats went into the air in all parts of the auditorium, and the gallery added its vociferous voice to the demonstration. The band took up the spirit of the occasion and General Lee was kept bowing from side to side for several minutes.

Hon. Thomas M. Owen, of Montgomery, Ala., commander of the Alabama division of Sons of Veterans, spoke in response to the welcoming of the Sons. He was heartily applauded. General Lee then announced the committees.

General Lee then introduced Dr. Randolph H. McKim, of Washington, D. C., as the orator for the occasion. Dr. McKim was in excellent voice and his oration was a notable effort. Although the veterans had listened to two hours and more of oratory in a temperature approximately 90, they gave Dr. McKim their undivided attention and frequently interrupted with cheers.

At the conclusion of the address the convention, after making the election of officers the special order for to-morrow at 10 A. M., adjourned until to-morrow at 9 A. M.

Sons of Veterans,

The United Sons of Veterans met in Watkins Hall this afternoon. The delegates were called to order by Commandant DeWitt, of the Joe Johnston Camp of Nashville. Col. DeWitt delivered an address of welcome, to which United States Senator Wm. E. Bates responded. Gen. Bates said the object of the organization was to perpetuate the history of the Confederacy and to see that it remains untarnished. He and the other veterans, the general said, would not be here much longer, and the sons would soon be called upon to preserve history. He made a plea for the preservation of Southern songs.

Mrs. Kate Lytton Hickman, of Nashville, welcomed the sons on behalf of the Daughters of the Confederacy. She was followed by Colonel Biscoe Hindman, of Louisville, past commander, in a graceful speech.

General Lee seems decidedly in the lead to-night for the office of commander in-chief, the reception given him to-day by the veterans evidently foreshadowing his election to morrow. The Cabelle boom has fallen almost flat, the Texans evidently realizing that they are in the minority.

It is thought the matter of a permanent reunion city will come up to-morrow.

FATAL FEUD FIGHT IN AN INDIANA TOWN.

Three Men Killed and Two Wounded as Result of a Pistol Combat Between the Tow and Rout Families.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BRYANTSVILLE, IND., June 14 — Three men are dead and two wounded, one fatally, as the result of a pistol fight on the streets of this village to-day. The dead are: James and Charles Rout and Milton Tow. James Tow is fatally wounded and Frank Tow is badly hurt. The fight was the culmination of a feud between the Rout and the Tow families. The Routs live at Bedford, eight miles from Bryantsville, and the Tows are farmers living near here. The Routs are relatives of the Tow family which participated in the bloody Tow-Bass feud some time ago. A free gravel road election was held here to day and the village was crowded with farmers. There had been considerable drinking and when the Rout brothers drove into town and passed the Tows, who were standing near the election booth, trouble was looked for.

Two weeks ago, at a social affair, the hostility between the two families had been rekindled by a fancied insult to Charles Rout by a young woman who favored one of the two Tows. Hostilities were averted at the time, but to-day the Rout brothers announced on their arrival that they had come to "even things up."

Five minutes after the Routs reached town to-day they were seen approaching the election booth. The Tow brothers stood about ten feet apart, awaiting the arrival of the Routs. There is a dispute as to whether there were any words before teh shooting began, and it is also in doubt as to who fired the first shot; but it seemed to be recognized by all the participants that it was a fight to the death. Each of the five men drew a revolver and each side advanced, all firing. The men were not fifteen feet apart when the firing ceased. On the ground the two Rout brothers and Milton Tow lay dead. James Tow was prostrate, fatally hurt, and Frank Tow, though able to stand, had a bullet in his arm and another in his side. The crowd had scattered hastily when the shooting began and none of the bystanders was struck, although more than 25 shots were fired.

The wounded were taken to a store and their wounds dressed. The three dead were laid side by side on the counter to await the arrival of the coroner and officers from Bedford. There is intense excitement here.

DR. EDWIN A. ALDERMAN.

Elected President of the University of Virginia—Election Unanimous and Heartily Approved.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 14.—Edwin A. Alderman, president of Tulane University, the leading educational institution of the Gulf States, was to-day unanimously elected president of the University of Virginia by the board of visitors, the governing body of the institution. While no notice of acceptance has been as yet received from Dr. Alderman in answer to the notification of election, it is not believed he will decline. His official duties will begin in September, at the opening of the University. Immediately the election was made public the general alumni association and the University faculty held meetings and passed resolutions heartily approving the board's selection. Every member of the faculty wired congratulations to the president of Tulane and assured him of their support.

Dr. Alderman was born in Wilmington, N. C., May 15, 1861. His early education was received in local schools, and in 1882 he was graduated from the University of North Orrolina with the degree of bachelor of philosophy. He at once began teaching and from 1884 to 1887 was superintendent of the Goldsboro city schools. In 1889 he was chosen State superintendent of education and in 1892 professor of English in the State Normal College. On April 15th, 1900, he was elected president of Tulane University at New Orleans. There his career has been marked with much success.

NEW ORLEANS, June 14.—President E. A. Alderman, of Tulane University, who is attending a State conference at Baton Rouge, received a telegram there announcing his election as president of the University of Virginia. He says the honor was unsought and he will visit Virginia and give the matter careful thought before making final decision.

INSTRUCTED FOR HEARST.

Delegates to St. Louis Convention Elected by Illinois Democrats.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., June 14.—The Democratic State convention to-day nominated Lawrence B. Stringer, of Lincoln, for governor, and instructed the delegates to the St. Louis convention to vote as a unit for William R. Hearst for the presidential nomination. The convention was controlled by John P. Hopkins, former mayor of Chicago, and now chairman of the State central committee.

A mass meeting of representatives of the cotton trade of Manchester, Eng., adopted a resolution in favor of the continuance of short time until the end of July.

L. D. Allen and his wife were found dead in their room at Cleveland, Ohio, the woman having shot her husband to death and then fired a bullet into her own brain. A letter left by Mrs. Allen indicated that the tragedy resulted from domestic trouble.

BATTLE BETWEEN JAPS AND RUSSIANS

Russians Report Enemy Made Repeated Attempts to Dislodge Their Left Flank.

NEAR WAFANGOW STATION.

Russians Sustained Severe Losses, But Retained Their Position—Number of Japanese Killed by a Mine Explosion at Port Arthur.

By Cable to the Morning Star

ST. PETERSBURG, June 14.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following telegram from Lieutenant General Baron Stalkenberg, bearing to-day's date:

"A battle began at noon around the Russian position four and a half miles south of the station Wafangow, the enemy making repeated attempts to dislodge our left flank. The attack was repelled and we retained our position.

"The First regiment, occupying the left flank of our position, sustained severe losses. Its commander and adjutant were killed. General Gerngross was wounded, a shrapnel bullet shattering the right side of his lower jaw, but he remained on the field."

LONDON, June 14.—The "Central News" has received a dispatch from its Liao Yang correspondent, under to-day's date, saying that heavy firing between the Russian and Japanese vanguards commenced at 1:40 o'clock this afternoon. The fighting extended along the entire front, assuming the dimensions of a general engagement. The correspondent says that no details are available.

LIAO YANG, June 14.—Japanese artillery to-day opened up on Vafangow, a station on the railway 25 miles above Kin Chou. Details are awaited.

Blown Up by a Mine.

TOKIO, June 14, 4 P. M.—While the Taihoku was engaged in laying mines at the entrance to Port Arthur last night a mine exploded, killing one officer and eighteen men and wounding two officers and seven men. The Taihoku, which is a naval transport, was not seriously damaged.

The officer killed in the accident to the torpedo-laying ship Taihoku, was Lieutenant Commander Oda. He was the inventor of the Japanese mine, and by his great activity and skill throughout the operations before Port Arthur he had added largely to his reputation. The Taihoku at the time of the accident was under heavy fire from the Russian forts and torpedo boats.

Confused Accounts.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 15, 3:16 A. M.—The general staff remained in session until almost two o'clock this morning to translate and give out Lieut. Gen. Baron Stalkelberg's message announcing the fight at Vanfangow. This unusually late hour indicates that the authorities attach considerable importance to the dispatch.

It is thought here that the Vanfangow affair may prove to have been quite a heavy fight. The fact that the Russians held their position in the face of heavy losses also supports this theory, and it is believed that it may turn out to be a severe check to the Japanese northern advance.

The movement of three thousand Japanese north of Kuan-Dian-Sian only adds to the blindness of the situation in the northeastern field of operations. It is unquestionable that the Cossacks have been worrying the Japanese north of Feng Wang Cheng and the movement may be merely an effort to clear the country. At the same time this movement holds the possibility of a demonstration against Mukden, one of the main roads leading directly east from Mukden toward the region to which the Japanese are now advancing.

The concensus of opinion, however, is that the advance is more in the nature of a demonstration than a preliminary to an actual attack.

A special dispatch from Liao Yang, dated June 14th, says:

"Yesterday (Monday) at the battle of Vafangow Japanese troops numbering 20,000 tried to pass our flank, but were discovered. We changed our position, flanking the Japanese, and opened a heavy fire. The result is unknown."

The date of this dispatch does not agree with the Associated Press dispatch from Liao Yang or with Lieutenant General Baron W. Stalkeberg's message to the Emperor, both of which indicate that the battle took place yesterday (Tuesday). It is thought im probable that there have been two actions.

At Port Arthur.
